Dedication to Charles Brown

A Teacher's Retirement Blessing
By Barbara D MacAdam

You started on this journey, so many years and now it's time to leave behind dear friends you've come to know!

It seems to me that this was more than just a job to you. The passion & the love you have for teaching shines right through.

You taught that there is more to life than being at the top. It's in how you choose to get there, that the blessings never stop.

You encourages them to do their best & never mind their peers, to choose the straight and narrow, and to overcome their fears.

I've often thought how powerful your influence must be You turned each student's world of dreams into possibilities!

Now I pray God keeps you safe and well, wherever you may turn, surrounded by your loved-ones, living out the dreams you've earned.

So never waste time wishing that you could have down much more.....time to watch those seeds you planted grow and trust God for what's in store!

"My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style." Maya Angelou - Sandra Brown

May this new adventure bring you joy, peace, and fulfillment. God Bless you. Monica Rehberg

"Thank you for letting me sit in your second period class this year during the 2nd 9 weeks. I learned a lot from you. All the best in your retirement and the years to come." - John Gibson

It has been a pleasure being your student, colleague, and friend. You are the last of the old timers. I am going to miss you. Melba Harcus

"Thank you for being such a wonderful colleague and friend. Though I'm losing you as a coworker, I'm grateful you'll still be my friend. Happy retirement!" Jennifer Kincaid.
